

What is Certificate Version of Packaged Drinking Water Plant Training course?

- It is created for those who want some kind of self evaluation and wish to be certified by us.

What is the use of certificate?

- With Certificate you can be assured that you are fully equipped with the primary knowledge of Packaged Drinking Water Business.

If you required; you can produce this at relevant institutions. We, being quite an experienced organization in this field; have created and designed it in such a manner that you as a student will be fully ready and execute your Packaged Drinking Water Plant your way, but with top quality standards.

What are the contents of the course?

- The content is similar to the Digital Version & the Printed version; however the certificate Version is not delivered you a front. It will be available to you in 'Modules', every module will be available only after you complete the learning of the previous module.

After each module there are questions to be answered by the student. Thus student can track their progress.

Are there any grades?

- Yes, the minimum passing percentage is 50. However after the first attempt you will be given a second attempt with a correct answer to your wrongly answered questions. This is mainly designed to educate the student and make him perfectly ready as an educated entrepreneur in Packaged Drinking Water Plant.

When do you get certificate?

- There is no duration to this exam. It may take one day or one month as per your readiness.

Who conducts this exam?

- It has been carefully designed and created by veterans in this field and conducted by Mineral Water Project Information.

Where is the exam?

- There is no physical place. You have to attend it from online.

How can you take an admission?

- Just follow the payment method and once your payment is realized, we will depute you a 'Link' in your email box to logon. That's all...!